SdipTech recruits new Head of M&A and appoints Executive Vice President

Peter Helsing has been recruited as the new Head of M&A for SdipTech AB (publ). In addition, Anders Mattson has been appointed Executive Vice President.

Anders Mattson, Head of the new business area Supply chain & Transportation will, as Executive Vice President, represent the business areas in the Group Management Team. As such, Anders will coordinate the efforts and activities within the four new business areas.

Peter Helsing has over 20 years of experience in M&A, most recently serving as the Global Head of M&A at Essity since the company was listed in 2017. Prior to this role, he was the Head of M&A at SCA. Peter began his career at KPMG, where he specialized as an M&A advisor, primarily serving clients in the small-cap sector. He will assume his position in May 2025 and will report to Bengt Lejdström, President and CEO of SdipTech.

"We are delighted to welcome Peter to the Group. With his extensive experience from complex transactions of different sorts, from small to large ones, both privately and institutional owned, he will be an invaluable asset as we continue our ambitious acquisition strategy moving forward", says Bengt Lejdström, CEO at SdipTech.

"I am excited to join the team and look forward to continuing the journey to build and develop SdipTech even stronger in the future. SdipTech is well-positioned in favorable niche segments within the infrastructure sector. I see great potential to create further value by acquiring attractive technologies that contribute to more sustainable, efficient, and safe societies", says Peter Helsing.

When Peter has joined the company, SdipTech's Group Management will consist of:

- Bengt Lejdström - President and CEO
- Anders Mattson - Executive Vice President and Business Area representative
- Susanna Zethelius - CFO
- Peter Helsing - Head of M&A
- My Lundberg - Head of Sustainability & IR
