

Nordic Iron appoints new CFO

Nordic Iron Ore AB (publ) ("the Company") has appointed Emeli Nauc ler as the company's new CFO, as the current CFO, Ulf Kasshag, is leaving the role for retirement.

Emeli Nauc ler has extensive experience in financial management, accounting, reporting, and financing, and has held several roles in various companies as interim CFO, IT manager, and finance manager. She will now be responsible for building up Nordic Iron's finance function, including IT and procurement functions, based on the organization's needs ahead of the upcoming construction phase and eventual start of production.

Emeli Nauc ler will assume the position of CFO at Nordic Iron on August 10, 2026, and outgoing CFO Ulf Kasshag will be available for a period to ensure a proper and high-quality handover.

"We're excited to welcome Emeli Nauc ler to Nordic Iron to further develop the company's finance function, while I also want to thank Ulf Kasshag for the solid platform for financial work he established during his time at the company," says Ronne Hamerslag, CEO of Nordic Iron.
