

Kyl & Tvättservice i Trollhättan joins KEYTO Group

KEYTO Group, together with its Servly business, is pleased to announce that KEYTO joins forces with Kyl & Tvättservice i Trollhättan, further strengthening the geographical presence in Sweden.

Kyl & Tvättservice i Trollhättan operates in Västergötland and specializes in the installation, maintenance, warranty work, service, and repair of professional laundry systems. With this acquisition, Servly extends its reach and service capacity in the region.

KEYTO Group warmly welcomes all customers and employees of Kyl & Tvättservice i Trollhättan to the group.

Magnus Agervald, CEO of KEYTO Group, commented:

"Having Kyl & Tvättservice i Trollhättan join KEYTO Group and our Servly business is a great match with our ambitions to build a group of leading service providers. Welcome to the KEYTO family—we're excited about the growth ahead of us."

Jesper Jahnstedt, Managing Director of Servly, added:

"The addition of Kyl & Tvättservice i Trollhättan expands our regional presence and strengthens our service network. We're always on the lookout for exceptional companies to become part of our group, and Kyl & Tvättservice is a valuable addition to our operations."

Leif Emilsson and Mattias Eriksson, Owners of Kyl & Tvättservice i Trollhättan, said:

"Joining KEYTO Group and Servly is an exciting step for us. We see great opportunities to further develop our services and grow together with a group that shares our values of quality, customer focus, and long-term relationships."
