

Impact Coatings and Hyundai Motor Company Extend Joint Development Agreement

Impact Coatings AB (Sweden) and Hyundai Motor Company (South Korea) have signed an extension to a joint development agreement entered in 2019, and which was described in a press release on October 30, 2019. According to the joint development agreement the companies will "... jointly research and develop novel materials, processes and equipment for coatings for applying it into bipolar plates for a variety of applications including fuel cells and/or hydrogen production."

For more information contact:

Peter Högfeldt, Director IR & Partner Development
+46 708 87 44 34

E-mail: investors@impactcoatings.com

This information is information that Impact Coatings is obliged to make public pursuant to the EU Market Abuse Regulation. The information was submitted for publication, through the agency of the contact person [s] set out above, at 2023-02-15 09:04 CET.

About Impact Coatings

Impact Coatings offers customer-focused coating services, clean coating technologies, and flexible coating systems with focus on hydrogen solutions, autonomous safety functions, and tailored coating solutions for high-end applications.

The company utilizes vacuum deposition methods - sustainable processes to apply thin layers of metal or ceramic coatings that improve performance and durability. Impact Coatings markets coating equipment under the trademark INLINECOATER™ and coating materials under the trademark MAXPHASE™. The company's service models and systems are flexible and scalable to fit the fast-paced markets the company operates within.

The Impact Coatings share is listed on Nasdaq First North Growth Market (Nasdaq Nordic). The company's Certified Adviser is Redeye AB.

Attachments

Impact Coatings and Hyundai Motor Company Extend Joint Development Agreement