

Divio has signed a multi-year contract with The Swiss Government represented by the Federal Office of Armament «armasuisse»

Divio is excited to announce that it has won a customer relationship with armasuisse, within the defense department of the Swiss Government. The contract includes cloud hosting services provided through Divio's application delivery platform that also includes Service Level Agreements for armasuisse's web applications for the duration of 2.5 years.

"I take great pride in our partnership with the new customer armasuisse, as it presents an opportunity for Divio to engage in close collaboration, particularly with regards to supporting a customer with stringent security and compliance prerequisites, which we are fully equipped to meet", says

Jon Levin, CEO Divio Technologies.
