

Fraser McLeod appointed as Managing Director of BICO company Biosero

The appointment of Fraser McLeod as Managing Director of Biosero, effective from September 22, 2025, marks an important step to further advancing on the strategy, BICO 2.0. With extensive expertise in the global life science industry, Fraser McLeod has the right experience to drive sustainable growth. Under his leadership, Biosero will be well-positioned to strengthen its role as a provider of automated and data-driven science – supporting BICO 2.0 and creating long-term value for customers and shareholders.

"I'm honoured to become Managing Director of Biosero, at a time when automation is mission-critical to every modern lab – freeing scientists to focus on scientific discoveries. I'm incredibly excited to be part of that journey with Biosero and our customers and am looking forward to continuing Biosero's commitment to automation that delivers reliable results", says Fraser McLeod, assuming Managing Director of Biosero.

Headquartered in San Diego, US, Biosero is a supplier of integrated lab automation solutions. Biosero's Green Button Go® software platform seamlessly connects instruments, workflows, and data into scalable operations. By enabling efficiency and speed in laboratories worldwide, Biosero plays a central role in delivering BICO 2.0 and positioning the Group to capture growth opportunities and meet the market demand.

"We are delighted to welcome Fraser McLeod to lead Biosero in its next phase by delivering integrated lab automation solutions. Fraser McLeod brings over two decades of global leadership experience in life sciences businesses, including software and automation, serving pharma and biotech clients. His wealth of experience will be a great addition to our team", says Maria Forss, President & CEO, BICO Group AB.

Fraser McLeod will report to BICO's President & CEO Maria Forss.
