FREDRIK GEIJER STEPS DOWN AS CFO OF GAMING CORPS

Gaming Corps AB (publ) (the "Company" or "Gaming Corps") today announces that Fredrik Geijer has decided to step down from his role as CFO. He will continue working in his role until a successor has been recruited and the handover has been completed.

"First and foremost, I would like to thank Fredrik for his strong commitment to Gaming Corps. We are experiencing exceptionally rapid growth as a company, which places significant demands on the entire organisation in many different areas. It is therefore natural that we need to find a long-term solution for the CFO role. The search for Fredrik's successor will begin immediately, and Fredrik himself will be closely involved in the process, particularly in ensuring a thorough handover," says Juha Kauppinen, CEO of Gaming Corps.

Gaming Corps will immediately begin recruiting a new CFO. Fredrik Geijer will ensure a smooth handover and support the recruitment and onboarding of his successor. Fredrik Geijer took up his role in February 2026.

"We recently completed a successful capital raise and now have a stable financial foundation to build on. The Company is entering a new phase in which the pace of growth calls for a longer-term solution for the CFO role, so it feels natural to hand over to someone who can take the business forward. I am very proud of what we have built together and, once the process and my handover are complete, I look forward to following Gaming Corps' continued success as a shareholder," comments Fredrik Geijer.
