Jonas Jonsson appointed CEO of 4C Strategies

The Board of Directors of 4C Strategies has appointed the current Managing Director of 4C International, Jonas Jonsson, as the CEO of 4C Strategies (4C Group AB (publ)), taking office on the 2nd of April 2024.

Jonas Jonsson joined 4C Strategies in 2013 and has since had several operational and executive positions, most recently as the Managing Director of 4C International, leading the company's expansion in the EMEA and APAC regions.

"4C has a clear strategy centered on our Training management and Resilience software, Exonaut. The Board's consolidated assessment is that the execution of our strategy now needs a different leadership. Jonas Jonsson has successfully grown the international segment of 4C since 2019. He has over 10 years of industry experience and is a very strong leader", says Andreas Hedskog, Founder and Chairman of 4C Strategies.

Magnus Bergqvist will be available full time to 4C Strategies for a smooth transition during Q2. "On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to thank Magnus Bergqvist for his exceptional contribution during the past 13 years. Magnus took over the helm of 4C in 2011 and has been instrumental to 4C's journey and success. We wish him all the best in his future endeavors", Andreas Hedskog continues.

"4C has a strong history of profitable growth and international expansion. With our recently launched Exonaut Next generation software and complementary professional services, the company is well-positioned to meet a strong market demand and monetize our current offering. I look forward to taking on the CEO position and, together with the management team, continue to develop our products and services, with a focus on profitable growth", says Jonas Jonsson, incoming CEO of 4C Strategies.
