Award Transparency Notice from UK MoD published regarding 4C Strategies

4C Strategies, 4C Group AB (publ) (the “Company”), a leading provider of solutions for training, readiness, and resilience has been informed that the UK Ministry of Defence on 26 March 2025 published a so-called Transparency Notice regarding a contract award for continued support and development of the Company’s software Exonaut (Collective Training Exercise Management System). The company says that this is a continuation and expansion of deliveries to the customer that covers the time period 1 November 2025 to 31 October 2028, with a potential extension of an additional two years.

A Transparency Notice is a formal step in the UK procurement process, used to inform the market of a direct award without competition (so-called single-source procurement).

According to the Transparency Notice, the contract value is approximately GBP 22.7 million including VAT, corresponding to approximately SEK 295 million, for a five-year contract period.
