The update focuses primarily on the top line, driven by the promising launch of Energy Manager. We are heavily investing in the marketing of Energy Manager, so while it doesn't impact the bottom line in the short term, it is generating more revenue than budgeted. Initially considered a niche title in our portfolio, Energy Manager is now leading in most metrics and is our second biggest game, still trailing behind Airline Manager.

It should be noted that Airport Tycoon (Sky Haven 2) is experiencing a delay of a few months.
