

Sareq AB appoints Erika Butterworth as CEO

The Board of Directors of Sareq AB has appointed Erika Butterworth as the company's new Chief Executive Officer. She will assume her position on March 9 2026.

Erika Butterworth most recently served as Investment Director at Storskogen Group AB, focusing on business development and growth across portfolio companies. She brings extensive experience in strategic leadership, acquisitions, and operational management within both Swedish and international organisations.

"We are very pleased to welcome Erika as the new CEO of Sareq. Her broad experience and strong leadership will be a valuable asset as we enter our next phase of development," says Ann Grevelius, Chair of the Board of Sareq AB.

Commenting on her appointment, Erika Butterworth said:

"I look forward to working together with Sareq's employees, shareholders, and Board to continue developing the company and further strengthening our market position. There is a strong foundation to build upon and significant opportunities ahead."

Contacts

Ann Grevelius, Chair of the Board Sareq AB

Email: ann@sareqinvest.se