Playdigious has released a new paid DLC for Dead Cells

Fragbite Group's subsidiary Playdigious has successfully released another update of the game Dead Cells. Dead Cells has exceeded the Company's expectations since it was first launched for mobile.

Now the paid DLC (paid version update) "Dead Cells' Queen and the Sea" has been launched, which gives players new environments and challenges to tackle. In addition, another free update offering a variety of new game content has been launched, in collaboration with other successful indie games developers such as Hollow Knight, Guacamelee, Hyper Light Drifter and more.
