Thule to hold investor update event

Thule is pleased to invite investors, analysts and media to an online investor update, one year after the latest capital markets day. The online event will take place on Tuesday, December 15, 2026.

One year has passed since Thule hosted its capital markets day where the strategy and updated financial targets were presented. The purpose of the investor update is to present Thule's progress towards the targets and learnings from the past year.

The event is held online, starting at 14.00 CET. The event is planned for approximately 1.5 – 2 hours depending on the number of questions. Presentations will be held in English.

Register your participation at https://thule.events.inderes.com/investor-update-2026. A more detailed agenda will be shared closer to the event. Participation in this event is reserved for capital market representatives and media professionals.
