Trading in Argo Defence Group's shares on Boerse Stuttgart begins today

Argo Defence Group AB (publ) ("Argo Defence" or the "Company") announces that today, 18 November 2026, is the first day of trading in Argo Defence Group's shares on Boerse Stuttgart.

"We see this as a very positive step in Argo Defence Group's development and an important part of our long-term ambition to grow internationally. Being present on a European trading venue gives us the opportunity to reach more investors, raise awareness of the company and create favourable conditions for our continued expansion within the defence industry," says Markus Selme, CEO of Argo Defence Group.

Today Argo Defence Group takes a new step in the European capital market as trading in the company's shares begins on Boerse Stuttgart. The listing is part of NGM Reach, which makes shares with a primary listing on NGM available to German and other European investors through a secondary listing on Boerse Stuttgart. Boerse Stuttgart Group is one of Europe's leading exchange groups and an established trading venue for Nordic growth companies.

"We are pleased to welcome Argo Defence Group to a secondary listing on Boerse Stuttgart. We look forward to following Argo on its continued growth journey," says Dragan Radanovic, CBO, Boerse Stuttgart Group.
