Changes in Gränges' Group Management

Torbjörn Sternsjö, currently President of Gränges Europe, will move into a new role as Senior Advisor to the CEO of Gränges. In this new role, he will focus on accelerating important global business development projects. The recruitment process for a replacement for Torbjörn has been initiated and Jörgen Rosengren, CEO, will act as President of Gränges Europe until it is complete.

“Torbjörn Sternsjö has been instrumental in the completion of our acquisition of Gränges Konin and has successfully led the European team through the first phase of the integration. He has also overseen the ongoing capacity expansion program, which is progressing well. We are very grateful for this critical contribution and wish him the best of success in his new role,” says Jörgen Rosengren, President and Chief Executive Officer, Gränges.

The changes take effect November 18, 2021.
