Press release

30 November 2022

Patriam recruits Carina Ohlander as new CFO

Patriam recruits Carina Ohlander as new CFO. Carina will play a key role in Patriam's future development. She has most recently had various real estate assignments in her own company and was before that, among other things, CFO at Savills and JLL.

Carina Ohlander takes up the position as CFO on 1 December 2022.

"With Carina's long experience in creating efficient processes within company structuring, she is absolutely right for us and our continued development going forward. We have worked with Carina before and are now very happy that we once again have her on our exciting journey ahead. I am convinced that she will continue to lead the company in the right direction", comments Andreas Holmberg, CEO at Patriam.

"Patriam is currently in a strong growth phase and I look forward to being part of that process. It is both fun and challenging to work in such a dynamic environment. With my solid experience in the industry, I feel that I can be involved and influence the company's development going forward in a progressive way, which feels very exciting", says Carina Ohlander.
