WPTG strengthens management team with key appointments to drive Nordic growth

Stockholm, Sweden, 2025-12-16 - White Pearl Technology Group AB (WPTG), a Swedish Global Tech Company, today announced the strengthening of its senior management team with the appointment of Oscar Carling as Chief Investment Officer (CIO) and Tobias Österdal as Vice President – Europe.

These appointments underscore WPTG's continued focus on Sweden and the Nordic region as its core growth platform, while supporting the Group's long-term strategy of disciplined acquisitions, operational integration, and sustainable shareholder value creation.

Mr. Carling and Mr. Österdal joins WPTG's management team in Sweden, comprising of Mr. Hans Hägg, CFO of WPTG AB, Mr. Peter Ejemyr, VP Investor Relations, Mr. Tony Lydén, VP Nordics and MR. Mikael Gavelin, advisor to the Nordics Operations.

Oscar Carling appointed Chief Investment Officer

Oscar Carling joins WPTG as Chief Investment Officer, where he will be responsible for the Group's investment strategy, M&A execution, capital allocation, and investor relations support. His role will be central to identifying high-quality acquisition opportunities, overseeing transaction processes, and ensuring strong governance and regulatory compliance in line with Swedish market standards.

Oscar brings extensive experience in investment management, corporate finance, and public-market communication, with a strong understanding of the Nordic capital markets. He will also act as a key representative for WPTG in discussions with investors, advisors, and transaction counterparties in Sweden.

"As WPTG continues to scale in the Nordics, disciplined capital allocation and execution excellence are critical. Oscar's experience and structured approach significantly strengthen our ability to deploy capital effectively and communicate clearly with the market," said Ebrahim Laher, Founder and Strategic Advisor to WPTG.

Tobias Österdal appointed Vice President – Europe

Tobias Österdal has been appointed Vice President – Europe, with primary responsibility for driving growth, integration, and performance across WPTG's European portfolio, with a strong emphasis on Sweden and the wider Nordic region.

In this role, Tobias will oversee regional operations, support newly acquired companies and work closely with local management teams to unlock synergies across the Group's IT services, digital transformation, and infrastructure offerings.

Tobias has a proven track record in scaling technology and services businesses, particularly in multi-company environments where operational discipline and commercial execution are key to value creation.

"Tobias brings deep regional insight and operational leadership that aligns perfectly with our Nordic expansion strategy. His appointment strengthens our ability to integrate and scale businesses across Sweden and Europe," added Marco Marangoni, CEO of WPTG.

Reinforcing WPTG's Nordic strategy

With these appointments, WPTG further reinforces its commitment to Sweden as its strategic home market and the Nordics as a cornerstone for long-term growth. The strengthened management structure supports the Group's ambition to build a leading Nordic-anchored technology group, combining local presence with global delivery capabilities.

WPTG continues to focus on acquiring profitable, well-run technology companies and supporting them through shared governance, capital access, and operational expertise.
