

JOHAN ÅKERBLOM ASSUMES THE ROLE AS CFO OF INTRUM

Intrum is pleased to announce that Johan Åkerblom assumes the role as CFO as of September and becomes a new member of Intrum's Group Management Team.

Appointed in April 2024, Johan Åkerblom now steps into the position as CFO and joins Intrum's Executive Committee and Group Management Team.

"I am delighted to welcome Johan to the team. With his extensive background in senior management roles and experience with international financial institutions, he will play a critical role in driving Intrum's ongoing transition toward a strengthened financial profile", says Andrés Rubio, President and CEO of Intrum.

Johan Åkerblom most recently held the position as CEO of Citadele Bank and prior to that, he has performed several key senior positions in financial services, such as CFO of SEB in Germany and CFO of SEB's Baltic Division.

"I am excited to be joining Intrum at this highly transformative time and, together with the rest of the team, contribute to delivering on the company's strategic plan and financial targets", says Johan Åkerblom, CFO of Intrum.
