

KB Components CFO will leave the company during 2025

Maria Gumabon has decided to leave her position as CFO at KB Components for a new opportunity outside the company. She will continue in her role while the recruitment of a new CFO is ongoing.

Maria, who has been with KB Components since 2016, will take a similar role in another company. She will remain as CFO and member of the Executive Management Team during her notice period, which runs until May 16, 2025. The recruitment process for her successor has started.

"I would like to thank Maria for her significant contribution to the company's success during her years as employed by KB Components and I wish her every success in her future endeavors" says Stefan Andersson, CEO of KB Components AB.
