Transcendent Group is entering new strategic partnerships

Today, Transcendent Group is reaching a new milestone, by entering partnerships with OneTrust, Protecht, Stratsys, LogicGate, Acuminor, and Risma to provide a more comprehensive service portfolio. These partnerships will be benefitting both existing and new clients as Transcendent Group continue to expand its growing ecosystem of partners to strengthen and complement its core offering and enhance its capabilities as a provider of GRC services.

Transcendent Group invests time and effort in scanning the landscape of the best-practice solutions and services to complement its experienced consultants when bringing value to clients and meeting their needs. In some instances, this results in collaborative solutions and in other cases it results in partnership opportunities where operational and client related crossovers exist.

“We are a consulting firm passionate about making the complex simpler and building strong client relationships. To be able to offer the most value to our clients, we continuously need to strengthen, deepening and extending our GRC-offering as the risk landscape become more and more complex. Entering these strategic partnerships with carefully selected companies who share our passion for GRC, is an enabler for more efficient and effective GRC practices”, said Martin Bohlin, CEO of Transcendent Group Sweden.

Transcendent Group has partnerships within GRC Tech, Financial crime prevention software, Branded products such as whistleblowing as well as areas that extend Transcendent Group’s existing offering such as Managed Security Services, DevSecOps and DevOps.
