Fragbite Group announces changes in the management team

Fragbite Group AB (publ) ("Fragbite Group" or "the Company") has today made changes to group management. Abrial Da Costa is leaving the group management team along with acting CFO Inger Hasselberg who has chosen to revert back to the role as Head of Financial Control.

As a consequence of the divestment of subsidiary Playdigious, Abrial Da Costa leaves the Fragbite Group management team. He will stay on as CEO of Playdigious.

"I want to extend a warm thank you to Abrial for his time at and commitment to Fragbite Group. We have all appreciated having him as a colleague. Abrial's extensive experience in the gaming industry has been valuable to the group, and I am happy that our collaboration continues," says Stefan Tengvall, CEO, Fragbite Group.

Inger Hasselberg has announced that she wishes to step down from her position as acting CFO and leave the group management team. Inger will therefore return to the role of Head of Financial Control.
