BLINCVISION'S SHARES NOW TRADE UNDER THE TICKER BLINC

As of today, BlincVision AB's shares are trading under the ticker BLINC on Nasdaq First North Growth Market.

The ticker change follows the company's name change from Terranet AB to BlincVision AB, which was registered on 30 June 2026. The name change marks the next step in the company's development and reflects its focus on commercialising the BlincVision sensor technology.

The ticker change does not affect shareholders' holdings or rights.

"With BlincVision and the new ticker BLINC, we have brought our company name, brand and technology together under one unified identity. We now continue our focus on commercialising our technology and creating long-term value for our shareholders," says Markus Johansson, CEO.
