

Quickbit invites you to a presentation and Q&A

Quickbit invites you to a presentation with subsequent Q&A on August 23, 2023. Daniel Sonesson, CEO, and Peter Liljeroos, Chairman, will tell you more about Quickbit's operations, new products as well as outline the way forward – Quickbit 2.0.

Quickbit is incredibly proud of its product portfolio of new products, including Quickbit Pay. The new product portfolio enables the next step in Quickbit's development phase, which goes under the term Quickbit 2.0. Quickbit 2.0 will take the company further into the future, where the ambition also means greater transparency in order to both engage and include Quickbit's shareholders even more in the continued growth of the business.

The presentation will be available both physically on site and digitally via link. More information about time and place will come in August.
