

Quickbit starts collaboration with e-commerce platform Abicart - gives access to approximately 2500 merchants

Today, Quickbit announces that a cooperation agreement has been signed with the Swedish e-commerce platform Abicart. It gives Quickbit access to approximately 2,500 e-commerce companies, which are given the opportunity to activate Quickbit Pay to their website without further integration.

Abicart is a Swedish e-commerce platform that allows e-commerce companies to in to set up their own websites for the sale of goods and services in a simple way and in subscription form. By targeting small and medium-sized e-commerce companies, Abicart has built up a customer base of approximately 2,500 e-commerce companies. All these customers are now given the opportunity to integrate Quickbit Pay as a payment solution without additional technical support.

Abicart is the first e-commerce platform that Quickbit starts a collaboration with, but Quickbit sees great potential to benefit from the scalability of Quickbit Pay by creating more similar collaborations both in Sweden and internationally. Quickbit expects to sign the first merchants through the collaboration shortly, and that the first merchants will be live with Quickbit Pay before the end of the year.

"This is a strategically important collaboration for us. Through this collaboration, we can benefit from the scalability of Quickbit Pay while giving the product broad exposure. It also shows that Quickbit Pay is compatible with platforms, which opens up for similar collaborations with even larger players internationally", says Jesper Sundström, Head of Growth at Quickbit.
