Stockholm June 12, 2025

Subsidiary Marstrom Composite secures order of approximately SEK 21.3 million from the defense industry

Scandinavian Astor Group ("Astor Group" or the "Company") announces today that its subsidiary Marstrom Composite AB ("Marstrom") has received an order of approximately SEK 21.3 million. The order is for the delivery of composite products to a defense contractor in Northern Europe.

"This order is an important recognition of our ability to deliver high-performance composite solutions for critical defense applications. It strengthens our long-term relationship with the customer and shows that our investments in technology and quality are paying off", says Fredrik Lindblom, CEO of Marstrom Composite.

Astor Group's subsidiary Marstrom has today received an order of approximately SEK 21.3 million for composite products for the defense industry where the customer is a major defense company in northern Europe. Deliveries will start in Q3 2025 and continue until the end of 2027.

Due to the nature of the industry and the circumstances of the customer, as well as national security interests, no further information about this order or the customer will be disclosed.
