Press release from Scandinavian Astor Group AB (publ)
Stockholm July 1, 2025

Astor Group's EW company receives order worth approximately SEK 15 million

Scandinavian Astor Group's ('Astor Group' or 'the Company') subsidiary in Electromagnetic Warfare ("EW"), Oscilion EW Systems, has received an order for, among other things, the drone jammer Eclipse from a country in the Western world. The order value is approximately SEK 15 million and deliveries are scheduled for 2025.

"This agreement is an important recognition of our ability to deliver advanced solutions in the field of Electromagnetic Warfare. We see a demand for adaptive and software-defined EW systems, not least in C-UAS, that contributes to relevant defense capability over time. We are proud to be able to contribute with Swedish technology at the forefront", comments Oscilion EW Systems CEO Fredrik Bergman.

Astor Group's Electromagnetic Warfare company Oscilion EW Systems, which began operations back in the 90s by building advanced radar jammers has today signed an agreement of approximately SEK 15 million covering systems and materiel for EW. Deliveries are scheduled for autumn 2025. The orders also include testing activities.

Due to the nature of the industry and the circumstances of the customer, as well as national security interests, no further information about this order or the customer will be disclosed.
