Eolus appoints Chief Commercial Officer

Eolus has appointed Christer Baden Hansen as Chief Commercial Officer and member of the Group Management. He will take office on 1 February 2023.

Christer Baden Hansen has extensive experience from the wind industry through his long career within Vestas where he has held several positions within sales. Most recently he was Vice President, Head of Global Sales of Vestas Group.

“Eolus has set an ambitious business plan and we are on a growth journey where we are scaling up our business and our operations. I am delighted to welcome Christer Baden Hansen to this new position. He will be an excellent resource in developing our commercial operations, market strategies and strengthening our transaction team”, says Per Witalisson, CEO of Eolus.

“I am really excited and honored to become part of Eolus. The company’s journey and sustained results over the years have been very impressive. At the same time, Eolus plays a key role in the energy transition, and with a skilled organization and the ambitious business plan set out for the years to come, the company is poised for success”, says Christer Baden Hansen.
