MilDef wins system integration contract with FMV, worth SEK 25 million

MilDef has won a new, major contract within the framework of the existing agreement regarding the integration of tactical IT to the Swedish Armed Forces. The value of the system integration is SEK 25 million, of which SEK 15 million will be delivered in 2022 and the remainder in 2023.

The Swedish Defence Materiel Administration, FMV, procures, develops and delivers materiel and services to the Swedish Armed Forces. MilDef has collaborated with FMV since 1997 on Tactical IT and further deepened the cooperation after the acquisition of Defcon Solutions AB 2021, now MilDef Integration Sweden AB.

"We are proud to be able to deliver complete solutions in tactical IT to customers who increasingly require system-wide context in their assignments. MilDef delivers project management, construction, mechanics and installation of systems that make a real difference in the field. The contract demonstrates that our qualified capabilities are gaining customers' trust," says Björn Karlsson, CEO of MilDef.

The information was submitted for publication, through the agency of the contact persons set out below, at 10:00 CET on March 9, 2022.
