

MilDef wins system integration contract worth SEK 20 million

Through its subsidiary Defcon Solutions, MilDef Group has won a system integration contract for the Swedish Armed Forces. The order is for mobile installations of communication equipment and delivery is planned for 2022.

“The contract demonstrates the broadening of our business offering and the ability to expand with our integration capability. Together with industry-leading hardware and software for challenging environments, integration and deployment are key competitive advantages. This contract is strengthening evidence that our total offering wins the trust of our customers”, says Björn Karlsson, CEO of MilDef Group.
