

MilDef wins contract with Saab worth SEK 21.5 million

MilDef has won a deal for development and serial production of an advanced computer platform for Saab. Development and delivery take place during 2022 and 2023. Total order value is SEK 21.5 million.

The new computer replaces an existing computer platform delivered by MilDef. Based on the standardized form factor that MilDef offers its customers, upgrades and replacement products are cost-effective and fast, important parameters for repeat business.

“We are proud to deliver advanced tactical IT with high performance to Saab. It’s very valuable to us to collaborate with an international business that produces world-leading platforms and solutions”, says Björn Karlsson, CEO in MilDef Group. “To receive the trust to replace a previously delivered product is a testament of strength, based on a very good collaboration with this important customer.”
