champions doing good via 'Freemium Philanthropy'

UPPSALA, SWEDEN / SLIEMA, MALTA — December 16 2016 — Gaming Corps AB and Karmafy today announce that they have entered into an agreement to integrate Karmafy's platform for Freemium Philanthropy into the hit mobile basketball game Slam Dunk Basketball 2. Over the coming weeks, Gaming Corps AB and Karmafy will roll out this enhanced version of the game.

"We are happy to have signed an agreement with Karmafy as it supports our social responsibility goals and will help us attract even more gamers worldwide." – Magnus Kolaas, CEO of Gaming Corps.

"Karmafy delivers a unique system for games and gamers to turn time spent playing into real-world positive impact," said Jonas Eneroth, CEO of Karmafy, "for free, simply by playing the game."

"We are always glad when our clients are successful." commented George Francalanza, Chief Officer - Large Enterprise Support Unit at Malta Enterprise. "Digital gaming is one of our key startup focus areas."

Gaming Corps AB will be using the Karmafy platform to let their players direct a portion of game revenue to good causes. Partnered with a number of charitable groups, Slam Dunk Basketball 2 will work with the player community to help build awareness, direct support and provide deep customer engagement.
