Göran Thuresson will leave Precise Biometrics when successor assumes the role as CFO

Göran Thuresson has decided to leave Precise Biometrics and return to a role as interim consultant. The recruitment of his successor has been initiated. Göran remains as CFO until a successor has assumed the role.

“Göran has in the best of ways contributed to the development of Precise Biometrics. I would have preferred for Göran to stay in the organization, but respect his decision,” said Torgny Hellström, Chairman of the Board of Directors at Precise Biometrics.
