Dimensional Ink Games unveiled the key art and launch date worldwide for DC Universe Online Episode 44: Sins of Black Adam

Episode 44: The Sins of Black Adam for DC Universe Online (DCUO) will launch October 26 on PC, PlayStation 4, Xbox One, and later on Nintendo Switch.

In Episode 44: The Sins of Black Adam players will follow Black Adam who has failed twice now to resurrect and rescue his wife Isis from the Underworld. Determined not to fail again, he will enter the Underworld himself to strike a deal with Neron once and for all. But can either be trusted? And what costs might await the living as a result of those who trifle with the dead?

In The Sins of Black Adam, it will be up to players to navigate the dangerous path between good and evil, between life and death, between love and despair.

Key features:

- The Sins of Black Adam will offer normal and elite versions of all On Duty content, along with level-agnostic event versions available for a limited time.
- The content will include open world missions, with a solo, alert, and two raids.
- The episode will feature DC characters including Black Adam, Shazam, Isis, and more.
- The storyline will include adventures in locations inspired by Egypt and Egyptian myth, including Infernal Kahndaq overrun by the Underworld.
- The episode will launch new player rewards, including gear, styles, and more.
