

Kebni appoints new CFO and strengthens the Executive Leadership Team with new recruitments.

Stockholm, 22 August 2022 – Kebni has appointed Andreas Larsson as its new CFO, effective 1st October 2022. Andreas will substitute Karima Svedjefält, who has been interim CFO since February 2022.

Andreas has over 10 years of experience and held a variety of executive positions in fast growing firms active in several industries. His most recent role was Group CFO with Solideq Group AB.

“Andreas has an impeccable track record of establishing, growing, and running companies. His broad experience within finance and acquisitions together with his dynamic personality will set the agenda going forward.” – CEO Torbjörn Saxmo

Kebni has also appointed Fredrik Jonsson as Vice President, Head of R&D and Product Management Satcom, and Rikard Kärras as Vice President, Head of Operations, Supply and Production. Fredrik and Rikard join Kebni from Datapath and have already started.

“As we grow and scale Kebni, Fredrik and Rikard, who are well-known names within the global Satcom community, will be great assets building our technological edge and operational architecture. They will clearly strengthen both our Satcom and Inertial Sensing domains.” – CEO Torbjörn Saxmo

Andreas, Fredrik and Rikard will fill vacant positions in the Executive Leadership Team and report to the CEO.
