CFO to leave C-RAD

The CFO, Erling Tomasson, will leave C-RAD on December 2, 2016 to take a CFO position at another company. Erling has been released from his duties as CFO. Therése Björklund took over with immediate effect as Interim CFO. Therése has been working for C-RAD in the position as Chief Accountant. The recruitment process for a new CFO is ongoing.

“Erling joined C-RAD in 2013 in the position as CFO. During this period the company has seen a substantial growth and an international expansion within America, Europe and Asia. As a member of the management team he has contributed to the achievements. I want to thank him for his work and wish him all the best for the future.” says Tim Thurn, CEO C-RAD AB.

About C-RAD
