Sedana Medical receives market approval in Italy

Sedana Medical AB (publ) has received market approval for Sedaconda® (isoflurane) for inhaled sedation in intensive care in Italy, bringing the number of European countries where the company's therapy is approved to 17.

"With this approval in Italy, we have now received market approval in 17 European countries, and are eagerly awaiting approval also in the UK during 2023. These approvals allow us to offer the first and only registered therapy for inhaled sedation of mechanically ventilated patients in intensive care", says Johannes Doll, President and CEO of Sedana Medical. Sedaconda® (isoflurane) has already received pricing and reimbursement approval in Italy. Timing of commercial launch depends on supply availability and the company's distributor for the Italian market, and is expected in the second half of 2023.

Sedana Medical's pharmaceutical Sedaconda (isoflurane), which is administered via the company's unique medical device Sedaconda ACD, is now approved in Austria, Belgium, Croatia, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, and Switzerland.
