

Press information

With reference to the press information distributed on March 22, 2012, we can confirm that the member of our management team who has been detained in custody on suspicion of a crime of a private nature is no longer under suspicion and that the preliminary investigation has been discontinued. The person recommences work at Net Insight immediately.

The company will not give any further comments.

Net Insight AB
Fredrik Trägårdh
CEO