

Continued demand for Quartzene[®] in cool roof paint – Svenska Aerogel receives 3 ton order

Svenska Aerogel receives a call-off order for 3 tons of Quartzene[®] from its French distributor Novcoat. The order thus represents a delivery contract between the two companies for 2024 and will be divided into four deliveries during the year. The material will be used by Novcoat's customer in cool roof paint.

When planning its deliveries for 2024, Novcoat's customer ordered a total of 3 tons of Quartzene[®]. The value of the order is 96.8 KEUR.

Tor Einar Norbakk, CEO of Svenska Aerogel, comments: "This order is a very positive sign for us, as it indicates continued strong growth for the customer's product. The order confirms our belief in cool roof as an important application for our material."
