PRESS RELEASE

4 September 2017

Catena Media's move to Nasdaq Stockholm's main market has been completed

Today, 4 September at 9.00 a.m. Catena Media's CEO Robert Andersson rang the bell at Nasdaq Stockholm to mark the official move to Nasdaq Stockholm's main market. Previously, the stock was traded on Nasdaq First North Premier.

"We are a relatively young company. To enter the Stockholm Stock Exchange's main market is a great achievement. It is also a significant sign of quality for Catena Media. We are on a strong growth path, and the list change will give us even greater opportunities to achieve our high goals", said Robert Andersson in a comment.
