Annexin receives Innovation Award at an international conference

Annexin Pharmaceuticals AB (Publ) ("Annexin" or "the Company") announces today that the Company was awarded the Innovation Award at the Ophthalmology Innovation Summit (OIS) in San Diego for its ongoing development of ANXV for retinal vein occlusion (RVO).

Dr. Anna Frostegård, Chief Scientific and Medical Officer, presented the RVO program and accepted the award. The jury selecting the award winners comprised investors and analysts with competence in the ophthalmological field (OIS Newsletter).

OIS, which was held in San Diego, USA, December 2-3, 2022, is a recognized forum for the most important new product ideas for treatment of diseases of the eye. Investors, analysts, and companies, some with products in the market and other more innovative, smaller companies, attended the congress. About 40 pre-selected companies were invited to present (OIS Presenting Companies).

“This award confirms the great potential and value of our project. Naturally, the international visibility provides a boost in view of partnering discussions and the future financing of the company,” says Anders Haegerstrand, CEO.
