

PRESS RELEASE - Stockholm 2023-07-04

White Pearl Technology Group partnered up with investor community TradeVenue

Investors can now follow the company's journey on the First North Growth Market in Stockholm that took off on the 29th of June 2023. TradeVenue, managed by FairValue, monitors listed companies with regularity; its experts and analytics have an ear to the ground in the Swedish market and long reach in the national community of more than 300 000 investors.

White Pearl Technology Group is an international IT-service provider company group with a global presence in thirty countries. The partnership with TradeVenue represents an opportunity to follow the WPTG share in a Swedish context.

“We value our close to 7000 shareholders in Sweden, and we are of course, communicating with them in our own channels. TradeVenue, however, provides its unique perspective on important company events and writes about the WPTG Share from an investor’s perspective,” says Marco Marangoni, CEO of White Pearl Technology Group.

The company presentation is continuously updated and communicated on a regular basis in all FairValue's channels.

“We are delighted to announce the inclusion of White Pearl Technology Group on our platform, a unique IT company with a strong presence in the world's most rapidly expanding and dynamic regions. As a part of TradeVenue, stakeholders of White Pearl Tech will benefit from a wide array of IR services. These services encompass comprehensive analytical coverage, insightful comments aimed at aiding investors in identifying key highlights from press releases and other corporate activities, and the opportunity to foster robust connections with contemporary investor networks on forums and social media platforms.” Says Mattias Folkesson, CEO at FairValue.
