ADDvise receives order worth approximately MSEK 6 - Regulatory information

ADDvise Group AB (publ) subsidiary Hettich Labinstrument Aktiebolag has received an order from Region Skåne worth approximately MSEK 6 regarding medical swabs. The medical swabs will, among other things, be used for sample-taking of patients tested for suspected COVID-19 infection. Delivery is planned to take place during the second quarter 2020.

- We see a massive increase of requests of our products related to COVID-19. Currently most of the requests concerns different types of protective devices and equipment used for testing of COVID-19. In addition, in the beginning of the second quarter the logistic interruptions have decreased entailing that we can more rapidly provide the healthcare with essential equipment in order to stop the spread of the coronavirus, says Rikard Akhtarzand, CEO, ADDvise Group AB (publ).
