Catena Media recruits the football expert Sladjan Osmanagic

Catena Media has recruited Sladjan Osmanagic, one of Sweden's most well-known sports journalists. On behalf of Catena Media, Sladjan will initially create content in the form of texts and variable video formats on Spelbloggare.se.

With Serbia as base, Sladjan will also work with sports journalism from a broad and international perspective on behalf of Catena Media, for example by developing content for SBAT and AskGamblers.

Sladjans breakthrough as a TV expert came during the 2006 World Cup, as a member of Swedish Television's expert panel. He also became an expert in international football in SVT prime sports show "Sportspegeln" and had his own web TV show "Sladjan surrar" on SVT's website. In 2008, Sladjan was recruited to Viasat where he was an expert during the broadcasts of Champions League and he also had his own shows on Viasat Football.
