

PRESS RELEASE

30 January, 2017

Catena Media releases its SBAT app and launches Livebetting.se

Catena Media further strengthens its focus in the important sports vertical with the release of its SBAT app and the launch of Livebetting.se.

The app is the first one of its kind to cover live scores and statistics across the football leagues world wide – from the Brazilian Under 20 's, right through the English Premier League. In total the app covers live scores and statistics on football leagues from over 35 countries, and over 250 games per day.

By using the SBAT app, football fans and punters alike will have access to live football scores and statistics at their fingertips at any time of the day. Match fact on each game – including line-up, incidents and recent games played – will be easily accessible via the app. Users will also be able to save their top leagues and matches for quick and easy access. To download the SBAT app, please visit the iTunes App Store.

Livebetting.se will provide high quality content and the site will systematically develop interesting and sharp previews of major sports events as well as betting tips. Newly recruited knowledgeable football expert Sladjan Osmanagic will be responsible for developing the content. He will work together with sports TV expert Jonas Dahlquist to produce engaging, video, audio and written content.

“This is further proof of our ambition to develop one of the leading websites within the exciting and growing live betting segment. Both Sladjan Osmanagic and Jonas Dahlquist are well known sports journalists combining experience and innovating ideas”, says Robert Andersson, CEO at Catena Media.
