

Three Gates enters a new agreement with Atari® for Asteroids®, Fatal Run och Submarine Commander®

Visby 15 april. Three Gates AB has entered into a new license agreement with Atari®, one of the world's most iconic consumer brands and interactive entertainment producers, to develop new mobile games based on the classic Atari games Asteroids®, Fatal Run and Submarine Commander®. Three Gates is responsible for development and Atari will be the publisher of all three titles.

"We are very pleased to deepen the relationship with Atari with two further classic titles. This is another step after Asteroids towards what we believe will be a long-term and successful collaboration with Atari," said Don Geyer, CEO of Three Gates.

"The work that Three Gates has done so far with Asteroids is very promising and it's exciting to see what we can achieve together with these three titles," said Jean-Marcel Nicolai, COO, Atari.

The companies will release more information about the new projects as they develop.
