Tivola Games' Cat Rescue Story nominated for best mobile game for the German Computer Game Awards 2024

Cat Rescue Story, developed by Jumpgate's subsidiary Tivola Games, has been nominated as one of three candidates in the category best mobile game for the German Computer Game Awards (Deutscher Computerspielpreis) 2024. The price is awarded by the German Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Climate Action (Bundesministerium für Wirtschaft und Klimaschutz) in collaboration with game – the German game industry association and the winners will be announced in connection with the award ceremony on April 18 in Munich. In addition to the honor, there is a price sum of 40 000 EUR for the winner of the best mobile game category.

Tivola CEO Florian Bohn comments: "The German Computer Game Awards is a prestigious award in the German game industry and we are very happy about the nomination of Cat Rescue Story, as one of three candidates for the best mobile game award. It's motivating for the team and a confirmation that the studio is developing in a positive way."
