Tivola Games' Cat Rescue Story has won the German Computer Game Awards 2024 in the category best mobile game

Cat Rescue Story, developed by Jumpgate's subsidiary Tivola Games, has won the German Computer Game Awards (Deutscher Computerspielpreis) 2024 in the category best mobile game. The price is awarded by the German Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Climate Action (Bundesministerium für Wirtschaft und Klimaschutz) in collaboration with game – the German game industry association and the winners were announced in connection with the award ceremony on April 18 in Munich. In addition to the honor, there is a price sum of 40 000 EUR for the winner of the best mobile game category.

Tivola CEO Florian Bohn comments: "We are very glad that Tivola has won this prestigious award. I'm proud of the team and the development of the studio. This confirms that we're doing the right things and it provides us with energy and motivation."
