

The TagMaster Nominating committee for 2016 is confirmed

Press release, Stockholm, Sweden, 14 December, 2015

The TagMaster Nominating committee for the AGM in April 2016 has been confirmed. Gert Sviberg, the company's biggest shareholder, will be its chairman. Further members are Tomas Brunberg and Didrik Hamilton as the next following biggest shareholders together with Gunnar Ek representing the smaller share holders and Rolf Norberg, chairman of the company. In addition Peter Ragnarsson has been invited as an adjoint member of the Nominating committee, being the fourth biggest owner and with just a few shares less than the third biggest owner. The latter has taken the initiative to this invitation.

A first meeting has been held today December 14 and the Nominating committee is planning for another one or two meetings before the AGM planned for April 28, 2016.
