The TagMaster Nominating committee for 2018 is confirmed

Press release, Stockholm, Sweden, December 15, 2017

The TagMaster Nominating committee for the AGM in April 2017 has been confirmed. Gert Sviberg, the company's biggest shareholder, will be its chairman. Further members are Tomas Brunberg as the second biggest shareholder together with Gunnar Ek representing the smaller share holders and Rolf Norberg, chairman of the company. The third biggest owner, LMK Venture, has through Peter Ragnarsson asked Rolf Norberg to represent its interests. The Nominating committee has therefore appointed Didrik Hamilton, being the fourth biggest owner, to participate. A first meeting has been held today December 14 and the Nominating committee is planning for another one or two meetings before the AGM planned for April 26, 2018.
