EverQuest II's Game Update 120: Myths & Monoliths is now available

The game update for the franchise that pioneered the MMO genre is bringing the ever-anticipated Fabled Veeshan's Peak Raid, The Fabled Kurn's Tower: Breaching the Void in Solo or Heroic mode, and The Fabled Kurn's Tower x2 Raid.

In all of these adventures, players will be up against strong foes and hostile adversaries. They should be sure their weapons are sharp and their gear is ready as enemies have no patience for waiting. Should they become battle-wearied, they can work on some Collections for all the New Zones.

There are also new Vetrovia Harvesting Quests and Level 60 Tradeskills Quests for Advanced Books if that is more their means of relaxation after fighting the good fight. So, players should grab their favorite beverage and take some me time. Their opponents will be there when they're ready to jump back into the fray.

Assets for EverQuest® II Myths and Monoliths™ are available here and more info on the update is available in the launch post here.
